HERBERT THOMAS WEBB
is commemorated on the THIEPVAL MEMORIAL
France

On 1 July 1916, thirteen divisions of Commonwealth forces launched an offensive on a line from north of Gommecourt to Maricourt. The German Army resisted tenaciously and repeated attacks and counter attacks meant a major battle for every village, copse and farmhouse gained. At the end of September, Thiepval was finally captured. The Thiepval Memorial, the Memorial to the Missing of the Somme, bears the names of more than 72,000 officers and men of the United Kingdom and South African forces who died in the Somme sector before 20 March 1918 and have no known grave. Over 90% of those commemorated died between July and November 1916.

Herbert Webb is commemorated on Pier and Face 8D
