Additional information in the Commonwealth War Graves Commission Register

Son of John Henry and Emily Maria Hall, of Newton Villa, Ross, Herefordshire.

The first burials were made in Plot I of the cemetery in September 1915, but it was most heavily used during the Battle of Arras, which began in April 1917. The dead were brought to the cemetery from casualty clearing stations, but between May and August 1918 the cemetery was used by fighting units. Lapugnoy Military Cemetery contains 1,324 Commonwealth burials of the First World War.
